Attention of Mr. Bacchus

Dear Sirs:

We have received most of the supplies you sent and presume the silver annodes will come to-day. What have you done about transferring the motor generator so as to attach it to the alternating current?

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Gentlemen:

Referring to the small motor generator set which has been delivered to you, there was an error made in equipping this set with direct current instead of alternating current motor. It will be necessary for us to furnish a new model generator set with the A.C. drive. Will you, therefore, be good enough to have someone at your place box up this set securely so that it will not be injured in transit, and ship by express to our Newark factory.

We are enclosing, herewith, a card for that purpose. This card reads - Hanson-Van Winkle-Munning Co., Chestnut & Van Buren Sts., Newark, N.J.

We are putting through a new order for the generator set with all possible speed and hope to make delivery as soon as possible.

Regretting the delay this has caused, we remain

Very truly yours,

HANSON-VAN WINKLE-MUNNING CO.

Attention Mr. H. Wood, Curator

Gentlemen:

Your electrician has advised this office that the motor of the new Motor Generator Set is also wrong, being a motor arranged for alternating current, 220 Volts, 60 Cycle, 3 Phase, instead of 110 Volt, 60 Cycle, single phase. We are extremely sorry that this second mistake occurred in your equipment. The writer did not receive a copy of the changed specifications from our main office, therefore, he had no opportunity to check up the records.

It will be necessary to change the little motor to one of 110 Volt, alternating current, 60 cycle, single phase. Will you, therefore, box this machine and ship by express to the Electric Specialty Company, at Stamford, Conn. We understand that this change in motor will only require a short time if you can arrange to make prompt shipment. Enclosed you will find a shipping tag already filled out.

Regretting this delay, we are

Yours very truly,

Attention Mr. Bacchus

Dear Sir:

We have just received the enclosed card which refers, I believe, to the motor which we sent to the Electric Novelty Company, as per your orders. I presume you can straighten this matter out quicker than we can.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
